

INVINCIBLE!

Refers to anything so well fortified as to resist the most desperate assaults. It fits our case like a glove. Single handed and alone, we have, from our vantage ground, so punctured and battered high prices and big profits that they are now absolutely on their "last legs," with but little power of resistance left. "He is thrice armed that hath his quarrel just." We gather power as we go, because our purpose is not wholly selfish. This war is waged in the interest of the citizens of Ohio county, as well as our own. Whilst our work is not all for glory, you must concede that it has a very large sprinkling of glory in its composition. We do not have everything that mankind needs, but do say without a doubt, that we carry the finest assorted stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries to be found in Ohio county. We solicit your patronage, guaranteeing Honest Goods, fine quality, and at prices that defy reliable competition. Don't fail to learn our prices before making your purchases elsewhere. Yours respectfully,

Declaration of Principles of the Knights of Labor of North America.
[Labor Record.]
In order to more fully acquaint the public with the aims and purposes—misunderstood and sometimes misrepresented—of the Knights of Labor of North America, we publish in full the declaration made by that body itself as to its aspirations on behalf of the working classes of the land: The alarming development and aggression of aggregated wealth, which, unless checked, will inevitably lead to the pauperization and hopeless degradation of the toiling masses, render imperative, if we desire to enjoy the blessings of life, that a check should be placed upon its power and upon unjust accumulation, and a system adopted which will secure to the laborer the fruits of his toil; and as this much desired object can only be accomplished by the thorough unification of labor, and the united efforts of those who obey the divine injunction that "In the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread," we have formed the Knights of Labor, with a view of securing the organization and direction, by co-operative effort, of the power of the industrial masses; and submit to the world the objects sought to be accomplished by our organization, calling upon all who believe in securing "the greatest good to the greatest number" to aid and assist us.

1. To bring within the folds of organization every department of productive industry, making knowledge a standpoint for action, and industrial, moral worth, not wealth, the true standard of individual and national greatness.
2. To secure to the toilers a proper share of the wealth they create, more of the leisure that rightfully belongs to them; more society advantages, more of the benefits, privileges and emoluments of the world; in a word, all those rights and privileges necessary to make them capable of enjoying, appreciating, defending and perpetuating the blessings of good government.
3. To arrive at the true condition of, by demanding from the various governments the establishment of Bureaus of Labor Statistics.
4. The establishment of co-operative institutions, productive and distributive.
5. The reserving of public land—the heritage of the people—for the actual settler—not another acre for railroads or speculators.
6. The abrogation of all laws that do not bear equally upon capital and labor; the removal of unjust technicalities, delays, and discrimination in the administration of justice; and the adoption of measures providing for the health and safety of those engaged in mining, manufacturing or building pursuits.
7. The enactment of laws to compel chartered corporations to pay their employees weekly, in full, for labor performed during the preceding week, in the lawful money of the country.
8. The enactment of laws giving mechanics and laborers a first lien on their work weekly, in full, for labor performed during the preceding week, in
the lawful money of the country.
9. The abolition of the contract system on national, state and municipal work.
10. The substitution of arbitration for strikes, whenever and wherever employers and employees are willing to meet on equitable grounds.
11. The prohibition of the employment of children in work-shops, mines and factories before attaining their fourteenth year.
12. To abolish the system of letting out by contract the labor of convicts in our prisons and reformatory institutions.
13. To secure for both sexes equal pay for equal work.
14. The reduction of the hours of labor to eight per day, so that the laborers may have more time for social enjoyment and to reap the advantages conferred by the labor saving machinery which their brains have created.

15. To prevail upon governments to establish a purely national circulating medium, issued directly to the people, without the intervention of any system of banking corporations, which money shall be a legal tender in payment of all debts, public or private.
16. That in connection with the postoffice the government shall organize financial exchanges, safe deposits and facilities for deposit of the savings of the people in small sums.
17. That the government shall obtain possession, by purchase, under the right, of pre-eminent domain of all telegraphs, telephones and railroads, and that hereafter no charter license shall be issued to any corporations for the construction or operation of any means of transporting intelligence, passengers or freight.
18. That the importation of foreign labor, under contract, be prohibited.
And while making the foregoing demands upon the State and National governments, we will endeavor to associate our own laborers.
19. To establish co-operative institutions such as will tend to supersede the wage system, by the introduction of a co-operative industrial system.
20. To shorten the hours of labor by a general refusal to work more than eight hours.
21. To persuade employers to agree to arbitrate all differences which may arise between them and their employes, in order that the bonds of sympathy between them may be strengthened, and that strikes may be rendered unnecessary.

Babies
That are fretful, peevish, cross, or troubled with Windy Colic, Teething Pains, or Stomach Disorders, can be relieved at once by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine, hence is safe. Price 25 cents. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin Bro.

Mark Howard and the Herald Organ.
Mr. Howard now has his organ swung into position, and has begun the work of the most excruciating musical torture, with prospects of ultimate success. He has already broken up a promising school next door, and lowered rents in the neighborhood 82 per cent. One of the most unfavorable nights last week Dr. Jackson called out the town to help him protect his property.
He thought a lot of villains were shearing the last hog on the plantation, while Mr. Gibbs was out looking for what he supposed to be a Tam O'Shanter, who had run out and stirred up the infernal glee of a regiment of warlocks. Oh, its just awful! But, from time to time, I'll report his work of desolation as he proceeds. It is hoped that we shall not be compelled to kill him. The Town Board have passed an order on his yard gate, which reads thus: "Don't shoot the organist.
He's doing the best he can."
Stegos.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh That Contains Mercury.
As Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely debase the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do are ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury and is internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure to be sure that you get the genuine, it is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.
Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle. Ma

Can't Sleep.

Troubles, sold on a positive guarantee at

PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.
A visit to Dr. Green's Laboratory, at Woodbury, N. J., has considerably changed our view, and especially our prejudices in regard to what are generally known as "Standard Patent Medicines." Of course we are getting to that age in life when we are forced to conclude Life itself is a humbug, and naturally distrust anything that has not withstood long and tried experience.
Being a physician I had the curiosity to know how much a sale of two medical preparations could be sustained for so many years. The perfect system upon which the business is conducted, and the pharmaceutical arrangements for the manufacture of the two recipes with which we were made acquainted, are sufficiently convincing to us that the Acker's Flower, for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, and Roschen's GERMAN SYRUP, for Throat and Lung Troubles, were for the complaints they are recommended, most excellent remedies, and only regret that in much of our practice, medical ethics prevent us from prescribing them without making the formulas public. When we were shown the great quantity of voluntary letters having been forwarded Dr. Green, from all parts of the country, and from all classes of people, lawyers, ministers and doctors, giving a description of their ailments, testimonials of their cures, etc. I feel like endorsing Dr. Green's suggestion that the Government accept such valuable formulas, and license them for general use by giving protection to the inventor same as patents generally. [Copied from N. Y. Druggist's Circular, Oct., 1886.]

Many
Of the good things of this life are seriously lost alone on account of Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Constipation; sold on a positive guarantee at 25 and 50 cents; by Z.
Wayne Griffin Bro. 15c only

The Cross-eyed Clerk.
[Harper's Magazine.]
During the late Christmas holidays a large firm in B— employed as an assistant clerk a young man who was exceedingly cross-eyed.
The special duty assigned him was to act as a watchman, and prevent the peculation of all sorts of small fancy articles that were lying about the counters for exhibition at that time.

One day a half-grown boy came into the store, and after looking around, putting first one thing and then another, among which were some very nice socks, he finally started to go out of the door.
At this moment the new clerk touched him lightly on the shoulder, and inviting him to come to the back part of the store, said to him, politely, "Obliged to give me at once the socks that you have in your pocket."

"How do you know that I have any socks in my back pocket?" demanded the boy, in a bold tone.
"I saw you put them there," said the clerk, very gently.

The boy looked up into the young man's face in utter amazement. "Are you looking at me now?" he asked earnestly. "Do you see me this very minute?" he asked, still more earnestly.
"Of course I do," replied the clerk.
"Good Lord, mister!" cried the boy, with a blanching face; "here's your socks!" And with a bound he was out the back door, over the fence, and away, having learned a lesson concerning all-seeing eyes which is to be hoped he may never forget.

Save
The children. They are especially liable to sudden Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. We guarantee Acker's English Remedy a positive cure. It saves hours of anxious watching. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin Bro. 15c only.

Kentucky's Democracy exacts of Mr.
Carbide that he will enter the Speakership contest next winter and enter in to win. We want no chairmanship of the Ways and Means committee for him. If he is defeated for the Speakership it will then be time enough to select a committee place for him.—[Owensboro Messenger.]

Acker's
Blood Elixir is the only Blood Remedy guaranteed. It is a positive cure for Rheumatism, Eruptions or Syphilis Poisoning. It purifies the whole system, and banishes all Rheumatic and Neuralgic pains. We guarantee it.
